

National Chinese Exhibition of Student Works

全美中文教育成果展

Consent form for College Students

The American Academy of International Culture and Education (AAICE) welcomes you to our 2023 National Chinese Exhibition of Student Works. Pictures and videos of your submitted work(s) will be published online when chosen for online display and/or for final showcase. These media will be used on our website and in other related venues in the future to promote the educational benefits of Chinese study.

By signing this form, you indicate that you have read the consent information and that you voluntarily agree to participate in the activities and for media materials to be used for the fore-mentioned educational related purposes. It is further understood you will not receive any monetary compensation or be charged for any expenses incurred in these events.

Participant's Full Name: _____

Date: _____

Honor Pledge

I affirm that the work I submitted to the 2023 National Chinese Exhibition of Student Works (NCESW) is a work of my own that was created in 2023 and has not been previously published. I accept responsibility for my role in ensuring the integrity of the work submitted.

Participant's Full Name: _____

Date: _____